STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1909.

NO. 74.

BRODHEAD.

Rev. Jamison will preach at the Baptist church Friday night. Rev. Sipple, of London, filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday.

Matt Coffey and a little daughter of Gran Hasty, of the Hiatt neighborhood, have typhoid fever. A little son of Malachi Hopkins has pneumonia.

Our barber, Matt Bowling, and Clero Wheeldon, the Livingston barber, have exchanged shops. Mr. Bowling left us and Mr. Wheeldon came to us Monday.

Henry W. Plum, of Owenton, and John Lawrence, of Georgetown, were here this week. The former was looking for mules and the latter buying tobacco.

W. P. Hilton, aged 28 years, and an invalid for 17 years, died Saturday and was buried Sunday afternoon in the Methodist cemetery. Rev. Pike conducted funeral services.

Conrad Hiatt, the hustling farmer and merchant of Hiatt, sold to Sam McHargue a farm of 90 acres at $40. Mr. Hiatt will quit farming and give his attention to his store.

Some cowardly person fired two shots at Rupert Menefee from ambush Friday night. One of the bullets almost touched his right ear. A bloodhound from Hustanville was brought here but failed to do any good. It is a mystery who the would-be assassin is.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cornelius, of Durango, Colo., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarrett. Miss Verne Jarrett, of Aztec, N. M., is here visiting her relatives. Mrs. J. R. Cass visited in Mt. Vernon this week. Mrs. Robert Albright, of Rowland, is with her mother, Mrs. Bettie Brown, in the Sayers section. Mrs. W. E. Wilnot has returned from an extended visit to relatives at Williamsburg. Master Delmas Owens is visiting his sister, Mrs. Virgil Martin, in the country. John Isaacs, of Gravel Switch, is here taking lessons in banking under Cashier Hutchison, of the Citizens Bank. Mr. Isaacs will be the cashier of the bank to be started at Gravel Switch. Mr. Marshall Stone, one of Stanford's gallant beaux, was here calling Sunday.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale was a foe to long sermons. He used to tell a story of a long-winded preacher and the minor prophets, which the Washington Star reprints:

This preacher once preached over an hour on the four greater prophets, and then, when his congregation thought he was through, he took a long breath, turned a fresh page and leaning over the pulpit said: "We now come to the more complex question of the minor prophets. First, let us assign to them their proper order. Where, brethren, shall we place Hosea?"

An irascible old gentleman in a back pew rose, took his hat and stick, and said, as he departed: "Place him here if you want to. I'm going home."

FORCED INTO EXILE.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

While Artur Everton, self-styled "professor" and traveling hypnotist, sobbed in his cell, three calm medical men witnessed a weird performance in the morgue of the Somerset, N. J., hospital. There William A. Davenport, secretary to the mayor of Newark, and a student of hypnotism, vainly tried to bring back signs of life in the rigid body of Robert Simpson, who apparently died after having been put into a hypnotic trance by Everton. Davenport failed. Simpson was declared officially dead and an autopsy was held.

POLITICAL.

Richmond, Va., a city of over 100,000 inhabitants, only polled 4,500 votes at the last election.

Representative W. F. Klair, of Lexington, denies the report that he will be a candidate for Speaker.

Gov. Willson has appointed O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, to sit as special judge in Kenton county to try the contested election case of Tracy against Shaw.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church here Sunday morning and night.

Rev. W. S. Willis will preach at the Christian church, Hustonville, Sunday morning on the "Lesson of the Leaves" and at night his subject will be "Habits." The latter will be the first of a series of sermons on good morals.

The largest amount of money in cash ever raised at one time in Owensboro was secured by Rev. C. C. Carroll, pastor of the Third Baptist church. The money wipes out the church debt. Ten thousand five hundred dollars was turned in by the members of the congregation. The church originally cost $47,000.

The various churches of Stanford worshiped with the Methodist congregation Sunday night and arranged for their representatives to give addresses of welcome to the new pastor, Rev. J. J. Dickey. Some notice of their plan was published in the I. J., but it escaped Mr. Dickey's attention and he supposed that the overflow house was a demonstration in honor of Rev. J. B. Harris, who was to preach, and he consequently failed to give the representatives of the other churches an opportunity to deliver their fraternal messages, or to say anything himself in appreciation of their coming. He wishes now to express his very great pleasure at this kindly expression of brotherly love and he heartily reciprocates the sentiments which this act expresses.

The church building at Pulaski was set apart for the worship of God on Nov. 7. The weather was ideal, the crowd large and Dr. W. D. Powell, of Louisville, at his best. All indebtedness was accounted for. This church has a history. Twenty-seven years ago the Presbyterians occupied it as a mission under their evangelist, J. E. Triplett. Dr. Guerrant preached the sermon. They expended $1,000.75. This last Spring they abandoned the field and sold the church to the Baptists. Rev. R. R. Noel was called upon. He, backed by the State Building Board under Dr. Powell and a host of friends, has raised and expended about $500, giving them a house worth $1,200. The names of those who helped so laudable and enterprise and who have stood by me upon former occasions are: Ed Caldwell, $1; James Holdam, $1; W. S. Burch, $1; Dr. Peyton, $1; George McKinney, $1; Harvey Helm, $1; W. L. McCarty, $1; J. C. McClary, $1; Robt. Lytle, $1; W. K. Shugars, $1; Denham Bros., $1; Dr. T. W. Pennington, 50c; T. H. Shanks, 50c; W. H. Shanks, 50c; J. W. Aey, 40c; Robert E. Gaines, $1; Mrs. E. L. Reinhart, $1; A. C. Carman, $1; J. M. Cress, $1; George L. Penny, $1; J. D. Wearen, 25c; J. Murray Taylor, $1; M. S. Baughman, 60c; E. P. Woods, $1; F. M. Ware, $2; J. W. Acton, $1; Double Springs church, $12; Eubanks church, $10; McKinney church, $2 50; E. C. Walton, $1; James McBee, 25c; and many others at Brodhead and other places, to all of whom we most gratefully acknowledge thanks in helping us out in the struggle, especially Dr. W. D. Powell, of the Baptist Building Band of Kentucky. R. R. NOEL.

MIDDLEBURG.

C. C. Rogers did service as grand juror at Liberty last week.

A girl was born to the wife of John Bates at Yosemite Tuesday night while John was keeping tally on the vote in the booth here.

J. H. Purdom, the Moreland tobacco buyer, was here a few days since and bought nearly all the weed in this section at 9 to 14c.

It is probably not generally known, but it is a fact that Jason Lawhorn was elected coroner. He and Gus Bastin made the race, but neither name was on the ballot and their friends voted for them by writing their names on the ballot. Jason will qualify and discharge the duties of his office.

The election is over and perhaps there are very few who are not glad. Even those who were defeated breathe easier than when the storm was on. Things did not go to our liking here, but we are not kicking because it would do no good. We had a good ticket and made a manly fight, but went down in defeat. Only three democratic magistrates are left out of the wreck. This was not a democratic year in Casey, though it seems to have been in nearly every other county in the State. So we have much to be thankful for and we will fight 'em again some day. I pulled through by the skin of my teeth in the race for magistrate, and in this connection I wish to say that I will ever feel thankful to my friends, both democrats and republicans, here and at Waltham for the fight they made for me. The two precincts gave last year nearly 50 majority for the republicans, but by the help of my friends I pulled through by the narrow margin of six votes. T. S. B.

Walter DeBord was acquitted of the murder of Eliza Burton in Pulaski.

The wreck is said to have been the result of failure of a flagman to protect the passenger train, he having been sent out ahead of a disabled freight train.

PLANS for the formal dedication of the new Capitol are yet in an unsettled condition, and the date is no nearer a positive determination than it was two months ago. It is the desire of the Capitol Commission to have the building finished before it is dedicated. The Governor's reception room has not been completed. The furnishings will not be in Frankfort before December 15, so it is probable that the dedication will not take place until after December 15. Then there is talk of postponing the dedication until spring, when the weather is good, probably in March, just before the Legislature finally adjourns. The furnishings for the Governor's reception room are being made to order and will cost $15,000. The rug which is to cover the floor is being made to order in France, and that will not be ready before the middle of December. The rug will be one of the show pieces in the new Capitol and will be the most expensive single article in the whole building. It was specially designed for the room in which it is to be laid.

EX-CONGRESSMAN GEORGE G. GILBERT, successful as a lawyer, politician and business man, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lawson E. Woodridge, in Louisville, of stomach trouble and a complication of diseases Monday. He had gone from his home at Shelbyville to visit his daughter when he was stricken. Mr. Gilbert is survived by his wife, two daughters and a son. The latter was elected county judge of Shelby a week ago. Deceased represented this district most creditably in Congress for three terms, was State Senator one term and county attorney of Shelby for several terms. He was born in Spencer county in 1849. Mr. Gilbert was a polished gentleman, a fluent talker and a most magnetic speaker. He was well known in this county, and universally admired.

BEER puts out the fires in the coke oven, says a Pittsburg dispatch. For 72 hours after pay-day the coke ovens do not run more than two-thirds of their capacity, and following almost every pay-day hundreds of tons of coke are ruined because men can not be gotten to take care of it. It is reported that the Steel Corporation is willing to pay 10 millions for the nine breweries in Fayette county in order to stop the sale to coke workers of beer in kegs and barrels. It is not proposed to cut off the supply of malt liquors, but to sell them only by the glass, which will make the acquisition of a jug more laborious than it is now, when the coke worker, on receiving his pay, annexes himself to a keg.

If present plans don't miscarry, Memphis will be selected as the general headquarters of the different Confederate organizations and a suitable building will be erected to serve as a Confederate museum. A movement with this end in view was inaugurated at a meeting of N. B. Forrest Camp, Sons of Veterans, following announcement of the selection of Memphis as permanent headquarters of that organization by the Executive Council in Montgomery. Invitations will be extended to the veterans' associations and the various auxiliaries to co-operate in the undertaking.

Mrs. Mary C. Carter died at her home in Parksville. Death was due to an attack of pneumonia. She was about 50 years of age.

A case unprecedented in the annals of Jessamine county was tried in the circuit court when the suit of Mrs. Heister Young and others against Matt Young, an insane man, for $20,000 damages was tried. Matt Young killed Deputy Sheriff Logan Young, the husband and father of the plaintiffs, in December of last year. He was insane at the time and is now in the asylum. They were awarded $14,000.

MATRIMONIAL.

A Buffalo girl thought she was marrying a French count but he turned out to be only a French cook.

Col. John Jacob Astor, it is said, gave his wife $10,000,000 in cash and securities to secure a separation from her.

Robert Hubble, of the Turnersville section, and Miss Edna Mobley, of the Mt. Salem neighborhood, were married Tuesday. The groom is an industrious, clever young farmer and his bride is both pretty and popular. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mobley.

Handsome engraved invitations have been received by their many friends for the approaching marriage of Miss Emma Virginia, the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weldon Warren, to Mr. Charles Frederick Garnett, well and favorably known here. The wedding will take place at the Warren home on East Main street at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 24.

Mr. Samuel Walton Severance and Miss Ollie Seaman were married in Louisville at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening by Eld. Joseph Severance, of Frankfort, a brother of the groom. The wedding occurred in the pretty home which Mr. Severance had already furnished. Only a few close friends and relatives were present. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served. At 8 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Severance, accompanied by Messrs. William and A. H. Severance and their wives, took the train for Stanford, where they will spend a few days, the guest of relatives. Mr. Severance is a well-known newspaper man and a fine gentleman. His bride is said to be a most charming young woman and very pretty.

Mr. McDowell Fogle, of Casey, and Miss Berta Carr Murphy were married at the home of the bride at McKinney at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Prof. D. Edgar Fogle, of Georgetown, an uncle of the groom, performing the ceremony, which was a very pretty one indeed. Miss Mary Katherine Murphy, sister of the bride, and Mr. Joe Will Rout, of Hustonville, stood with the bride during the ceremony. The groom is an industrious and successful young farmer of the Middleburg section and is a fine young man. His bride, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Murphy, is a charming young woman, very pretty and highly accomplished. She is exceedingly popular and the young people of the West End give her up with sincere regret. Mr. and Mrs. Fogle will make their home on his Casey county farm, where the best wishes of their many friends will always be with them.

State Wide Prohibition.

Evangelist J. B. Harris was here last Saturday and Sunday in the interest of State Wide Prohibition. He delivered several addresses and preached Sunday morning and evening at the Methodist church to good audiences. A State-wide movement has been launched for the purpose of getting the next Legislature to submit an amendment to the constitution of Kentucky prohibiting the sale and manufacture of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes. It is the plan of the leaders to organize local associations in all the towns and villages of the State, who shall co-operate with the leaders of the movement. In joining the local organization a membership fee of $1 is paid and this money goes to carrying forward the work. Twenty organizers are at work in different parts of the State and success is crowning their efforts. Mr. Harris is one of these organizers. He secured a number of names in memberships and will return in about two weeks to perfect an organization. Every friend of State wide prohibition is urged to join in this united effort to abolish the saloon and distillery from the State. The movement is solely for this purpose. It is this union of all parties, creeds and clans that has brought prohibition to the States that are now enjoying this boon. The general officers of this organization will be announced soon. Mrs. Beauchamp, of Lexington, who has done more than any man or any other woman for temperance in Kentucky, is one of the prime movers of this enterprise, as president of the W. C. T. U. of Kentucky. The plan is to have a large number of representative men visit Frankfort during the session of the Legislature and to have some of the ablest men of this section there also, to make addresses and otherwise aid in getting this desired legislation. It is also desired to flood the State with temperance or prohibition literature. The enemies to prohibition are thoroughly organized and its friends believe that a successful fight can only be made by solidly organizing.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pang of this terrible disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

FOR selling whisky in Stanford, Anderson Carr, colored, was fined $100 and given 30 days in jail at his trial in the Federal court at Richmond. The jail sentence was for some reason suspended. A few more such fines might deter the blind tiger operators. Let the officers get busy and others will feel the weight of the law.

THE Democrat-Gazette, published at McKinney, Texas, says that at the State Fair Joe H. Murry, son of Mr. W. H. Murphy, of this county, was the largest money winner on saddle horses. He got $630. It is practically conceded that William Cromwell, of this city, will not have opposition as clerk of the Senate, and that Mr. J. M. Alverson, of Stanford, is leader in the race for assistant clerk of the Senate, says a Frankfort dispatch. His Senator, Mr. R. L. SOUND the cymbals. Dink Farmer has been elected jailer of Lincoln county. He has been a candidate in every primary for the Democratic nomination since the Civil war and his highest ambitions were realized last Tuesday. He has the reputation of having shaken hands with more people and kissed more babies than any man in the grand old commonwealth. --Advocate.

A DIABOLICAL DEED.—Some fiend in human form who ought to be doing time in hades fed Paris green to a bunch of 900 lb. cattle belonging to Mr. W. Gill Cowan, of the West End, and 19 of them have died. Several others will die. A valuable brood mare belonging to Mr. Cowan, also got some of the poison and died. The financial loss exceeds $1,000 but that is of secondary consideration. What bothers Mr. Cowan and his friends is that he has an enemy who would resort to such underhanded methods to get revenge. Five cattle on his farm died last year from eating Paris green, however, only two of them belonged to him. Friends of Mr. Cowan, and they are many, are up in arms about the treatment of that clever gentleman and if the scoundrel who administered the poison is caught, the chances are that he will be roughly handled. Mr. Cowan has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrator of the cruel deed.

FIRE destroyed much fence and grass on the farm of Col. Isaac Shelby in the Shelby City section.

Mr. Shanks is a candidate for speaker of the House and says the encouragement he has received from the membership makes him feel that he will be elected. He made a splendid reputation as an active and useful member in the last body. --Lexington Gazette.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. To Tell a Horse's Age.

To tell the age of any horse, inspect the lower jaw, of course; The six front teeth the tale will tell, And every doubt and fear dispel.

Two middle nippers you behold Before the colt in two weeks old; Eight months the corners cut the gum, Before eight weeks two more have come.

The outside grooves will disappear From middle two in just one year. In two years from the second pair— In three years "corners" too are bare.

At two the middle "Nippers" drop; At three the second pair can't stop; When four years old the third pair goes, At five a full new set he shows.

The deep black spots will pass from view At six years from the middle two; The second pair at seven years; At eight the spot each corner clears.

From middle "Nippers" upper jaw At nine the black spots will withdraw, The second pair at 10 are bright; Eleven finds the corners light.

As time goes on the horsemen know The oval teeth three-sided grow; They longer get—project—before Till twenty, when we know no more.

REWARD.

Having suffered considerable annoyance and damage from outlaws, in breaking gate latches and tearing down and destroying my gates, on the county road that runs through my farm, I have concluded to offer a reward for information leading to the conviction of such person or persons. I will therefore give the sum of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties, that have broken the latches on any of my gates, or that have sawed down or torn down any of my gates on the county road which runs from the Hustonville turnpike to the Millersville turnpike, through my farm; and I will give the same amount for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties who in the future commit any of the above offenses.
Witness my hand this 10th day of August, 1909.
